

1 knowledge that Marylanders are deeply grateful to you, and 2 please accept our best wishes at this time. And may God
3 be with you always.

4 (The Delegates to the Maryland Constitutional 5 Convention, the Officers, the Staff, the Press, and the 6 Visitors arose and applauded.)

7 PRESIDENT ENEY: There are times when one wishes
8 so much that he had the eloquence and the power of expres-
9 sion and the ability to put in words the thoughts that go
10 racing through his mind. I do not have that ability.

11 It is utterly impossible for me to express to 12 you in words what that mace and inscription with all the 13 signatures on it means to me. You will simply have to 14 read my mind and be satisfied with a simple but very, very 15 heartfelt thank you.

16 Thank you very much.

17 (The delegates arose and applauded.)

18 HONORARY PRESIDENT TAWES: The Chair now
19 recognizes Delegate E. J. Clarke for the purpose of making 20 a motion.

21 DELEGATE CLARKE: Will Delegate Cardin please
